Great White Kaolin Project Definitive Feasibility Study Update

Andromeda Metals Limited (ASX: ADN) ("Andromeda" or the "Company") advises that the release of the Great White Kaolin Project Definitive Feasibility Study (DFS) results will be released next week.

The previous target for release of the DFS was by 31 March 2022, however due to the unplanned late receipt of certain key data, there will be a short delay to the announcement of the results.

This minor delay in the release of the DFS in no way impacts the intended project delivery schedule.

This ASX announcement has been approved for release by the Board of Andromeda Metals Limited.
